"The Women of the New Testament"

Beginning with Mary, his mother, Mary Magdalene, Martha, Mary, and others, this session will examine both how Jesus' life and ministry were encouraged and assisted by holy women, and also how, particularly from Luke's perspective, Jesus responded to their needs and concerns.

"Biblical Fundamentalism"

Our Catholic understanding of the Bible is too beautiful to allow less attractive and unsatisfying fundamentalist interpretations to guide our spiritual lives. This session will provide strategies for helping RCIA instructors and parish Bible study leaders to understand the roots of fundamentalism, and to help them to move adults from fundamentalist approaches to more satisfying, liberating Catholic uses of the Bible. Bring your Bible!
